

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE (2/2014)

Katarzyna Radzik-Maruszak is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Local Government and Politics in Faculty of Political Sciences at the University of Maria Curie-Skłodowska, Poland. Her current research interests include local government politics, comparative local governance, the roles and responsibilities of elected and administrative officials in European local governments and accountability of local institutions. Email: katarzyna.radzik@poczta.umcs.lublin.pl

Uroš Pinterič is an Associate professor at the Institute of Political Studies at the Faculty of Social Sciences at the Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic. His field of research is predominantly focused on regional development and local governance. He published also in the field of democracy, internal politics and policy studies. Email: uros.pinteric@gmail.com.

Tomáš Strážay is a Senior Research Fellow and Head of the Central and Southeastern Europe Research Program at the Research Center of the Slovak Foreign Policy Association (RC SFPA), Bratislava, Slovakia. He is a leading expert in the project Think Visegrad – V4 Think Tank Platform, National Convention on the European Union in Albania and National Convention on the European Union in Montenegro. He is the author and co-author of numerous analyses and articles on regional cooperation, Visegrad Group, EU enlargement and Western Balkans. Email: strazay@sfpa.sk.

Veronika Bajerová is a Researcher at the Department of Politics and European Studies at Palacky University in Olomouc, Czech Republic. Email: veronika.bajerova@upol.cz.